HARD LUCK FOR
LAWRENCE MANJoe Bass Gets in Bad Company at Cadillac and Loses His Roll of $250.00.

A dispatch in the state press dated from Cadillac states that one Joe Bass is critically ill there as a result of having been given "knockout" drops presumably by footpads at the Cadillac fair. Joe says he was drinking in a saloon, with a man named George Patterson, with whom he went to Cadillac from Grand Rapids. His roll of $250 is missing, and he cannot account for its loss unless someone robbed him. Physicians say that he was unquestionably drugged.

Joe's home is in Lawrence, and he is well known in this vicinity. He has been employed on farms in this township for many years and is a splendid farmer. A weakness for the "cup that cheers," however, has made him an unknown quantity in recent years.

LIVED OLD DAYS OVER AGAIN

Correspondent Writes of Reunion of Pupils and Teachers of Lake View School, Waverly.

On Saturday Sept. 17, occurred one of the most enjoyable meetings it has been our privilege to attend. It was a reunion of the pupils of Lake View school district No. 2 Waverly township. Invitations had been sent far and wide and about 60 persons met on the old school grounds which their young feet had trod in the long ago. Some with locks of gray others still young, but all for that day were boys and girls as of yore. It was not Mr. and Mrs. but just the dear old names of our school days.

Among those from away were Josephine-Merchant-Adams of Redlands, Cal., Lilly-Green-Soooy of Jennings, Okla., Nellie-Shaw-Craver of Waukegan, Ill., Carrie-Dayton-Tillatson of Cooper, Mich., Mat-Dayton-Sheldon and Flora-Wescott-Taylor of Gobleville, Mich. A letter of regret from Ella Tuxbury-Hayes was read. The guest of honor was our dear old teacher Dollie-Dillie-Conner. Verily, when we hear the kind words of respect and affection which she heard on that day we can truly say her efforts were not all in vain, it was well worth while.

After playing "High Spy," "Hanty Over" and "Pull away" all sat down and did ample justice to a dinner fit for the gods. After dinner the time was spent in singing old songs and telling stories of bygone days. Before separating a permanent organization was formed which was named The Lake View School Society. The officers elected were, Geo. L. Rich, president; Lucy Cleveland, vice president; C. W. Dayton, secretary. It was also decided to hold annual picnic on the school grounds the time being determined by the officers and an invitation committee consisting of Matt Dillon, Jennie Davis and A. K. Cleveland. Every one declared that it was the most enjoyable meeting they had ever attended, not even a touch of sadness marred the joy which overflowed every heart. It was indeed a day without alloy. A day always to be remembered and well worth while.

OBJECTS TO FIGHT PICTURES.

Jackson, Mich., Sept. 20, 1910.
Dear Mr. Wakeman:—
When my attention was called yesterday to the bills strewn all over our fair city advertising the reproduction of the brute Jeffries Johnson fight on canvas in some public place in town, I was horrified. Other citizens with whom I talked over this proposed intrusion of indecency upon the high reputation of our community were horrified also. Every serious parent and teacher will resent this attempted exhibition of brutality.

On behalf of the high reputation gained by our community, the well being of the boys and the cause of decency, I call upon parents, teachers, town and county officials and the christianity of the town to spare us this odium, by mild, brotherly persuasion, if possible, but by vigorous suppression if necessary.

Believing that the high ideals of our citizenship will in this, as in other moral questions, continue to register itself on the side of progress, I am
Very sincerely,
G. GILBERT STANSELL.

THE BEST FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

An ideal newspaper for the American home must be habitually clean and high minded, it must offer something of interest to every member of the family, and it must present daily the news of the whole world in authentic and readable form. A large contract, you will say. Well, the newspaper that comes nearest to filling it in the West is The Chicago Record-Herald. Its moral tone is always high, its news service is unsurpassed and probably no other paper in the United States has so brilliant an array of special features suited to the tastes and needs of every member of the family.

Business and professional men have long regarded The Record-Herald as the best paper for their own reading because of its unequalled facility for getting all the news of the world and putting it into the briefest possible form for the busy man. They also esteem it for the reliability of its financial, agricultural and market reports. Young men, perhaps, find its greatest attraction in the excellent sporting department, which fills four entire pages on Sunday and a page or more on other days. Wives and mothers enthusiastically prefer The Record-Herald on account of its well conducted feminine departments—its daily recipes and menus, its daily fashion news and hints for home dressmaking, Marion Harland's famous page and the rest of the good things that make up the handsome woman's section in the Sunday paper. Children enjoy the Little Nemo and Tiny Tad and other comic section pictures, with the bright stories for boys and girls every Sunday. And all the family together can enjoy the interesting travels and special articles of William E. Curtis, Mr. Kiser's humor and verse, the serial stories and many similar features outside the news columns.

The Chicago Record-Herald has every right to call itself the best all-around family newspaper in the West.
